MORE POWER TO OUR HURUM IS BESTOWED

Invited to Attend Meeting, Gets Office and Trip East

Hurum E. Reeve, genial and laughing hardware dealer, is becoming recognized more and more wherever he goes as a real live wire. Monday he drove to Los Angeles on business and learned of the convention of the Winchester dealers of California and Arizona. He promised to be home in three hours but was prevailed upon to lunch with the members. Afterwards he was asked to "say a few words." He said them, and as a result was elected secretary of the organization and later the meeting voted $250 expense money for his trip to Chicago June 20 to attend the national convention of the Winchester dealers. This is working fast, we say. Mr. Reeve has not decided whether he will attend the Chicago convention or not—but he should. Torrance is sure to receive its share of free advertising if Hurum goes.

B. F. Howard of Venice was a guest the latter part of the week at the home of Wm. Phillips.

TORRANCE WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's Club of Torrance held its regular meeting at Catholic Hall Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The annual election of officers was held and the following elected to office: President, Mrs. J. A. Young; first vice president, Mrs. W. M. Brooks; second vice president, Mrs. F. L. Parks; recording secretary, Mrs. W. J. Neelands; federation secretary, Mrs. Mabel Garner; corresponding secretary, Mrs. P. G. Briney; treasurer, Mrs. Ila M. Gilbert; directors, Mrs. Gladys R. Fitzhugh, Mrs. Verda Hansen and Mrs. Mildred Lancaster.

After all present had deposited their ballot in the box the club was called to order by the president, Mrs. Sammons. A partial report was given as to the result of the dance held in Sammons' warehouse June 1, showing that the club building fund had been substantially increased from the sale of tickets and of the home-made candy, which was made under the supervision of Mrs. A. B. Denny. The candy that was sold at the card party held in Legion Hall was also made under Mrs. Denny's direction, to whom the club extended a vote of thanks for her assistance.

Mrs. Halliwell was appointed chairman of the committee for the luncheon to be held at one o'clock June 13, in Catholic Hall. All members expecting to be present are asked to notify Mrs. Halliwell of the number in their party who will attend the luncheon.

A communication was received from Mrs. H. V. Wurdeman thanking the club for the check for $75.30, the proceeds of the card party given for the benefit of Post No. 1, Disabled ex-Service Men. This check was used toward paying off the indebtedness on the furniture in the club house on Hill street.

It was voted unanimously to set aside Section Five, Article Eight of the by-laws in order that the lady who had consented to stand for the office of president be eligible as she has not been a member of the club for a year previous to the election.

This concluding the business, Miss Anna McPherson, district chairman of music, Los Angeles Federation of Women's Clubs, gave the program, consisting of folk songs of many lands, with a short talk on the difference in their music. Beginning with Asia, Miss McPherson took the club on a musical trip around the world. Among the numbers given were "The Shawl Weaver's Song," from Cashmere, where the cashmere shawls are woven; "A Jassamine Flower," from China, and a Japanese song, "When Night Shadows Fall." The songs of England were "Come Lassies and Lads" and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," and as Canada is so closely connected with England, a Canadian song, "From Wales," "All Through the Night." Scotland was represented with "Loch Lomond," "Charlie is My Darling," and that old favorite dear to every heart, "Annie Laurie." The Irish songs were "Last Rose of Summer" and "Little Red Lark." France was represented by "There Was a Little Maiden" and "On the Bridge of Avignon." Norway and Sweden each contributed a folk song. "Santa Lucia," a Neapolitan folk song, represented Italy. From the little country of Basque came a "Lullaby." Switzerland's song was "From These Dear Mountains." "O'er the Distant Lowly Mountains" comes from Russia. Bohemia gave a folk song, "Ask Mother," and then as America has no individual folk song, Miss McPherson sang "The Cuckoo Clock," thus closing a program enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Harvey McManus, Mrs. D. D. McNeil and daughters Selina and Dolores, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Colmer and Earl Pruitt formed a party that motored to San Gabriel Saturday to witness the Mission Play.
